

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
Office of Communications

News Release

February 23, 2009
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Anne Steffens
Chief Communications Officer
(314) 792-7631

STATEMENT OF BISHOP ROBERT HERMANN ON THE APPOINTMENT OF ARCHBISHOP TIMOTHY DOLAN AS ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK

“The Archdiocese of St. Louis is very proud that one of its native sons, Archbishop Timothy Dolan, presently Archbishop of Milwaukee, has been chosen by Pope Benedict XVI to be the Archbishop of New York. He has been a stellar priest, an outstanding Rector of the North American College, and a member of the Papal Nunciature in Washington, D.C. He has served as an Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis and as a very faithful and energetic Archbishop of Milwaukee. We proudly extend to him our heartiest congratulations, best wishes, and our promise of prayerful support as he takes on the mission of the Archdiocese of New York.”

#