34th Annual Respect Life Convention

A Family For LIFE

Sunday, October 24, 2010

St. Charles Convention Center

(directly behind the Embassy Suites, I-70

just west of the Blanchette Bridge –

free convenient parking.)

This year's convention is truly a family affair. Dr. Thomas W. Hilgers, M.D., founder and director of the Pope Paul VI Institute, will offer a keynote address on how natural fertility care is essential to our mission of encouraging a greater respect for all life.

Four family-friendly workshops given by local and national experts will focus on the benefits of natural family planning for the whole family, having peaceful but productive pro-life discussions with loved ones, preparations for the end of life at any age, and discerning one's pro-life vocation in a pro-abortion society (workshop designed for teenagers and college students).
