Catholic Churches Hold Election Day Prayer Services

ST. LOUIS – Many Catholic parishes across the Archdiocese of St. Louis are holding Masses, rosaries, or other prayer services on the eve of Election Day, Monday, November 7, and Election Day, Tuesday, November 8.

Archbishop Robert J. Carlson will offer a special Mass and lead the rosary at St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic Church (6303 Nottingham Ave.) in south St. Louis on the eve of Election Day, Monday, November 7, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

On Election Day, Mass will be offered every hour on the hour, 6:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m., at St. George Catholic Church in Affton (4980 Heege Rd).

A complete list of prayer services and Masses can be found at archstl.org/vote.

Members of the media wishing to attend any of the events are asked to alert the Archdiocese of St. Louis ahead of time so that the pastors can be made aware.
