John F. Kennedy Catholic High School Plans Alumni Celebration

Alumni, Friends, and the Community Are Invited to Celebrate School's 50 year legacy

ST. LOUIS – John F. Kennedy Catholic High School welcomes alumni and friends to celebrate the school's 50 year legacy at a special event on Friday, May 12, beginning with Mass at 5:45 p.m. followed by a social from 6:30 until 10:00 p.m. The high school will close at the end of this month after 49 school years of educating young people.

“We have over 6,000 proud Kennedy Catholic alumni who serve their communities as business leaders, tradesmen, teachers, medical professionals, clergy, and religious brothers and sisters,” said Fr. Richard Wosman, president of Kennedy Catholic High School. “In their roles as parents, spouses, and professionals, these alumni draw daily upon the skills and faith they experienced at Kennedy Catholic.”

The celebration on Friday will bring several generations of alumni together to visit the school, share memories, laugh, cry, hug, and wish each other well. Pictures, old uniforms, yearbooks, and other memorabilia will be available for alumni and friends to take home to preserve their memories. Photos of items heading for the archives (class composites, banners, etc.) will be available to download soon.

Media is welcome to attend the event.
