Descriptive Summary

Abstract: The St. Louis Preparatory Seminary Records contain administrative and student life materials from 1960 to 1989.

Extent: 4 linear feet (6 boxes)

Record Group Number: RG 03 D 07

Historical Note

In 1957, the seminary system consisted of the St. Louis Preparatory Seminary, Cardinal Glennon College and Kenrick Seminary, operating on a 4-4-4 year basis. With the increase of vocational recruits, Archbishop Joseph Cardinal Ritter opened a second seminary high school in 1965 in north St. Louis County called St. Louis Preparatory Seminary North. The school was administered by Archdiocesan priests and was initially located at the old Sacred Heart School building in Florissant. A year later, it moved to its new facility on 3500 Saint Catherine Street in Florissant. Due to finances and decreasing enrollment, Prep North was closed in 1987 and consolidated into Prep South. Notably, Prep North accepted non-clerical students, unlike its counterpart Prep South. The rectors were Rev. Norbert Dietz (1965-1972), Rev. Edward Reilly (1972-1981), and Rev. Richard Stoltz (1981-1987).
