The Saint Louis Area Religious Archivists (SLARA) was formed after several novice religious archivists attended the Society of American Archivists conference in 1986. The first SLARA meeting was held on February 18, 1987 with 23 members present, representing 16 archives. The purpose for meeting is education, information sharing, mutual assistance and camaraderie around archival concerns and developments.

On October 20, 2020, the members met for the last meeting online via the Zoom platform due to gathering restrictions in place to control the spread of the COVID-19 virus. The attending members voted to dissolve SLARA as an organization.
